Proper Citation: Allen Cell and Structure Segmenter (RRID:SCR_023398)

Description: Software Python toolkit developed at Allen Institute for Cell Science for 3D segmentation of intracellular structures in fluorescence microscope images. Used for segmenting 3D intracellular structures in fluorescence microscopy images.

Synonyms: , Segmenter, Allen Cell & Structure Segmenter, The Allen Cell and Structure Segmenter

Resource Type: data processing software, image analysis software, segmentation software, software application, software resource

Defining Citation: DOI:10.1101/491035

Keywords: Cell Science, 3D segmentation, intracellular structures, fluorescence microscope images,

Availability: Free, Available for download, Freely available

Resource Name: Allen Cell and Structure Segmenter

Resource ID: SCR_023398
