Proper Citation: NeuroStars (RRID:SCR_003805)

Description: A question answering web site and forum that focuses on neuroinformatics and neuroscience. Initially conceived by Istvan Albert's highly successful BioStar website within the Bioinformatics community, NeuroStars is born as an experiment to engage the Neuroinformatics community after some unfruitful attempts in StackExchange's Area51. Posts that are detailed and specific, written clearly and simply are welcome.

Synonyms: Neuro stars

Resource Type: community building portal, data or information resource, discussion, forum, narrative resource, portal

Defining Citation: PMID:22046109

Keywords: neuroinformatics, neuroscience

Funding: International Neuroinformatics Coordinating Facility
