Description: The MIGHEALTHNET wiki has been set up to gather information about the health of migrants and ethnic minorities in the United Kingdom. It forms part of the project MIGHEALTHNET, currently being carried out in 16 countries and co-funded by DG SANCO, the Health and Consumer Protection Directorate-General of the European Commission. We invite you to add your contributions to it and to pass on the address of this site to others who may be interested. This website is part of an EU Project that aims to give professionals, policy makers including health authorities, researchers, educators and representatives of migrant and minority groups easy access to a dynamically evolving body of knowledge and a virtual network of expertise. It will stimulate the formation of networks of individuals and organizations concerned with migrant and minority health.
