Proper Citation: Principal Components Analysis (RRID:SCR_014676)

Description: R documentation for a function that performs a principal components analysis on a given data matrix and returns the results as an object of class prcomp.

Resource Type: software application, data processing software, source code, data analysis software, software resource

Keywords: statistical analysis, statistical analysis package, r, r package, principal component analysis, data matrix, prcomp, metabolomics

Resource Name: Principal Components Analysis

Resource ID: SCR_014676

Record Creation Time: 20220129T080321+0000

Record Last Update: 20260804T043548+0000
