Proper Citation: Brown Digital Repository (RRID:SCR_023144)

Description: Collection contains open and publicly funded data sets created by Brown University faculty and student researchers. Increasingly, publishers, and funders are requiring that protocols, data sets, metadata, and code underlying published research be retained and preserved, their locations cited within publications, and shared with other researchers and the public. The deposits here endeavor to be in line with FAIR Principles (Findable, Accessible, Interoperable, Reusable). If you would like to deposit data set into this collection for the purposes of citation/linking within publication and public dissemination, then please log in, zip up and upload your file, and request digital object identifier (DOI) for your data citation.
