Description: Research facility of the Department of Radiology at the Duke University Medical Center (DUMC) providing access to a whole-body, commercially manufactured 3 Tesla (Trio, Siemens Medical Systems) MR Imaging and Spectroscopy System with full research capability. The Center is fully equipped to perform clinical and research MR imaging or spectroscopy studies on humans or large animals. A full range of monitoring, anesthesia, RF coil development, computer and instrumental control facilities as well as MR research technologists and physics/chemistry consultation are available to Department of Radiology researchers and their collaborators.

Abbreviations: CAMRD

Synonyms: Duke Center for Advanced Magnetic Resonance Development, Duke University Medical Center, DUMC CAMRD, DUMC Center for Advanced Magnetic Resonance Development, Center for Advanced Magnetic Resonance Development, Department of Radiology: Center for Advanced Magnetic Resonance Development
