Proper Citation: University of Miami Hussman Institute for Human Genomics Biorepository Core Facility (RRID:SCR_017816)

Description: Core provides services and houses samples collected over the last 30 years. Biorepository processes, archives, and retrieves biological samples for genomic research. Offers variety of sample processing options including but not limited to automated DNA extraction using Autogen FLEXSTAR+ instrument, automated DNA/RNA extraction using Qiagen QIASymphony, peripheral blood mononuclear cell (PBMC) isolation, serum, plasma and buffy coat isolation, creation of blood cards, DNA/RNA quantitation and qualification, whole genome amplification, cell-line lymphoblast immortalization and primary fibroblast tissue culture. Offers sample solutions to suit customized needs. Services also include DNA/RNA Extraction, Sample archiving, retrieval and allocation, Unique and custom labels printing, DNA/RNA quantitation and qualification, Tissue culture, Whole genome amplification.
