Description: Core Facility is a 3,000+ fish tank facility, located in the Slosberg-Landay building, equipped with 48 racks which hold standard sized adult zebrafish tanks, three-rack nursery space for larval fish, and quarantine space containing two stand-alone housing systems. Wild-type lines are maintained inhouse for shared use. Wet lab space is available for breeding and line maintenance; core staff and facility-associated technicians perform daily feeding. The core includes a dedicated procedure room for embryo manipulation.
