Description: The College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences at FAMU strive to develop progressive leaders in pharmaceutical care, research and public health who enhance the quality of life for the people of Florida. In less than six decades since our founding, the College has emerged as a nationally recognized leader in pharmacy practice, research and public health. The successes that we have achieved have been built upon a solid foundation of attracting the most academically talented students from across the country; providing faculty who are on the cutting edge of research and practice in their respective disciplines; and new state-of-the-art facilities that provide the environment for outstanding intellectual growth and development. The College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences is a professional college with limited enrollment and selective admissions. The mission of the College is to produce highly qualified pharmacy practitioners who take an active role and responsibility in the delivery and outcomes of pharmaceutical care.
