Proper Citation: Wisconsin National Primate Research Center (RRID:SCR_012987)

Description: Research center aimed towards increasing understanding of basic primate biology and improving human health and quality of life. Its goals include helping discover treatments, preventative measures and cures for human disease; gathering knowledge of primate biology and ecosystems; providing resources to scientists world wide; and collecting and disseminating research to the larger scientific community and public.

Abbreviations: WNPRC

Resource Type: data or information resource, portal, service resource, topical portal
