Proper Citation: AD Model Builder (RRID:SCR_016881)

Description: Open source software suite environment for nonlinear statistical modeling enabling model development, numerical stability, computation, and accuracy parameter estimates. Language built around the AUTODIF Library, a C++ language extension which transparently implements reverse mode automatic differentiation.

Abbreviations: ADMB

Synonyms: Automatic Differentiation Model Builder, ADMB, ADMB-12.0

Resource Type: data processing software, simulation software, software application, software resource, software toolkit

Defining Citation: DOI:10.1080/10556788.2011.597854

Keywords: nonlinear, statistical, modeling, development, numerical, stability, computation, parameter, estimate

Funding: Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation ;
Joint Institute for Marine and Atmospheric Research and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

Availability: Free, Available for download, Freely available
