Proper Citation: Nanoparticle Tracking Analysis (RRID:SCR_014239)

Description: Software which utilizes the properties of both light scattering and Brownian motion to obtain the particle size distribution of samples in liquid suspension. The Nanoparticle Tracking Analysis software tracks many particles individually and calculates their hydrodynamic diameters using the Stokes Einstein equation.

Abbreviations: NTA

Synonyms: Nanoparticle Tracking Analysis (NTA)

Resource Type: data acquisition software, software application, data processing software, software resource

Keywords: data acquisition software, particle size distribution, liquid suspension

Availability: Pay for product

Resource Name: Nanoparticle Tracking Analysis

Resource ID: SCR_014239
