Proper Citation: McKinley: Cell Biosciences CB1000 Immunoassay (RRID:SCR_019813)

Description: Immunoassay system that enables rapid, quantitative analysis of specific proteins in as few as 25 cells per assay. Detailed information is generated on the post-translational modification status of critical signaling proteins. The system is fully automated and speeds samples from a standard 384-well microplate to final results, ensuring sample-to-sample consistency., THIS RESOURCE IS NO LONGER IN SERVICE. Documented on September 16,2025.

Resource Type: instrument resource
