Proper Citation: University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus Cancer Center Animal Imaging Shared Resource Core Facility (RRID:SCR_021980)

Description: Enables noninvasive imaging of animal models of human disease. Provides access and training on state-of-the-art animal scanners (MRI, CT, optical, PET/SPECT) for live imaging on rodents, performs all animal handling and assist with image analysis to establish imaging biomarkers.

Abbreviations: AISR

Synonyms: University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus Cancer Center Animal Imaging Shared Resource, Animal Imaging Shared Resource

Resource Type: access service resource, core facility, service resource

Keywords: noninvasive imaging, animal models, human disease, ABRF, USEDit

Availability: open

Resource Name: University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus Cancer Center Animal Imaging Shared Resource Core Facility
