Proper Citation: Columbia University Confocal and Specialized Microscopy Shared Resource Core Facility (RRID:SCR_026353)

Description: Advanced microscope systems for multidimensional optical imaging of living and fixed cells and tissues. Microscopy technologies include confocal, super-resolution (Airyscan and SMLM), TIRF, and wide-field microscopy as well as plate reading and laser capture microdissection. Analysis workstation and software are available, with custom pipeline development for processing, analysis, and visualization.
