Proper Citation: prank (RRID:SCR_017228)

Description: Software application as probabilistic multiple alignment program for DNA, codon and amino-acid sequences. Allows for defining potential structure for sequences to be aligned and then, simultaneously with the alignment, predicts the locations of structural units in the sequences.

Synonyms: PRANK

Resource Type: software application, software toolkit, software resource, data processing software, alignment software, image analysis software

Defining Citation: PMID:24170401, PMID:21110866

Keywords: multiple, nucleotide, sequence, alignment, DNA, codon, amino acid, phylogenetic, gap, predict, location, bio.tools

Availability: Free, Available for download, Freely available

Resource Name: prank

Resource ID: SCR_017228

Alternate IDs: biotools:prank, SCR_024174, OMICS_12425
