Description: The Department of Pharmacology is one of five basic science departments in the Roy J. and Lucille A. Carver College of Medicine at The University of Iowa. The Department currently consists of 25 faculty members, holding either primary or joint appointments in Pharmacology, many of whom are nationally and internationally recognized for their research. The Department occupies almost 32,000 square feet of newly renovated space in the Bowen Science Building, a component of the Health Sciences Complex on the west bank of the Iowa River. Departmental laboratories are well-equipped for the pursuit of research, and our faculty members use a wide variety of experimental methodologies to address contemporary issues in cellular and molecular pharmacology.
