Proper Citation: UMMS Proteomics and Mass Spectrometry Facility (RRID:SCR_012500)

Description: The University of Massachusetts Medical School Proteomics and Mass Spectrometry Facility is an analytical laboratory resource offering state-of-the-art proteomic, lipid, and small molecule mass spectrometric analyses to both the academic and external scientific community. This includes resources for study design, sample preparation and cleanup, sample fractionation, instrumentation, informatics, data interpretation, and publication assistance.
