Proper Citation: Cytobank (RRID:SCR_014043)

Description: A cloud-based platform which allows users to analyze, visualize, and archive multiparameter cytometry data for single-cell biology. Multiple single-cell data sets can be analyzed and visualized simultaneously with a variety of graphics, including Sunburst, SPADE, and viSNE. Users can store and back up related data such as protocols, microscopy images, and presentations and collaborate and share analysis and data sets with other Cytobank users. Cytobank also provides a variety of services and training sessions to assist with experiment workflow.

Synonyms: Cytobank Inc.

Resource Type: software resource, web application, service resource, training service resource

Keywords: single-cell biology, data, platform, cytometry, analyze, visualize, graphic, training service

Availability: Free, Price varies for different options, Available to the research community, Available to industry

Resource Name: Cytobank

Resource ID: SCR_014043
