Description: Core provides access to advanced imaging and analytical instrumentation, expert technical support, hands-on training, and collaborative project support. Services include high-resolution imaging through Scanning Electron Microscopy (SEM) and Transmission Electron Microscopy (TEM) to examine surface features, internal structures, microstructures, nanoparticles, biological specimens, and engineered materials at micro- to nanoscale resolution; X-Ray Diffraction (XRD) for phase determination and crystallographic analysis; Atomic Force Microscopy (AFM) for nanoscale surface characterization. Provides solid analyzer and rheometer for evaluating material properties and behavior. Specialized sample preparation services include polishing, ultramicrotomy, sputter coating, and other preparation techniques needed for microscopy and materials analysis. Individualized, non-credit instruction is available for instrument operation and sample prep techniques. Offers expert support with sample preparation, data acquisition, sample analysis, troubleshooting, and preparation of results for reports, proposals, presentations, and publications.
