Proper Citation: Clone DB (RRID:SCR_013791)

Description: A database which integrates information about genomic clones and libraries, including sequence data, map positions and distributor information. A clone's standardized name in Clone DB is comprised of its microtiter plate address with plate number row and column, prefixed by the standard library abbreviation, to provide a unique clone name. Libraries with records may be accessed via the genomic or cell-based library browsers.

Synonyms: NCBI Clone DB

Resource Type: information resource

Keywords: database, clone, eukaryotic organism, genomic clone, cell-based clone, cDNA
