Proper Citation: Cornell University Biotechnology Resource Center Biomolecular Interactions and Properties Core Facility (RRID:SCR_023117)

Description: Provides investigators with access to advanced tools for measuring biomolecular interactions and properties through variety of techniques from high throughput screening via automation to single reaction cuvette based methods. Facility complements technologies and techniques available through our Imaging facility and Proteomics and Metabolomics facility.

Synonyms: Cornell University BRC Biomolecular Interactions and Properties Facility, BRC Biomolecular Interactions and Properties Facility

Resource Type: access service resource, core facility, service resource

Keywords: USEDit, ABRF, biomolecular interactions and properties measurement, biomolecular interactions

Resource Name: Cornell University Biotechnology Resource Center Biomolecular Interactions and Properties Core Facility
