Description: Web server for local superposition free score for comparing protein structures and models using distance difference tests. Superposition free score that evaluates local distance differences of all atoms in model, including validation of stereochemical plausibility.

Synonyms: Local Distance Difference Test

Resource Type: data access protocol, software resource, web service

Defining Citation: PMID:23986568

Keywords: local superposition free score, comparing protein structures and models, distance difference tests,

Availability: Free, Freely available

Resource Name: IDDT

Resource ID: SCR_024524

Record Creation Time: 20231002T161337+0000
