Description: Open Source software package for digital pathology image analysis. Used for whole slide image analysis and digital pathology. Provides researchers with batch processing and scripting functionality, and extensible platform with which to develop and share new algorithms to analyze complex tissue images.

Resource Type: software application, data processing software, image analysis software, software resource

Defining Citation: PMID:29203879

Keywords: Digital pathology, image analysis, whole slide image, batch processing, tissue image, bio.tools

Funding: Invest Northern Ireland ;
Experimental Cancer Medicine Centre Network ;
Sean Crummey Memorial Fund ;
Tom Simms Memorial Fund ;
Friends of the Cancer Centre ;
Cancer Research UK Accelerator

Availability: Free, Available for download, Freely available
