Proper Citation: NSF Network for Advanced NMR (RRID:SCR_025092)

Description: Provides distributed services from Universities of Connecticut, Georgia, and Wisconsin to democratize application of high-field NMR spectroscopy for applications in biomedicine, materials science, and chemistry. Multi-institution collaboration creating distributed research infrastructure for NMR applications including resource discovery, access to NMR spectrometers, ranging from bench top to ultra-high field, knowledgebases on best practices, and data archiving and sharing.

Abbreviations: NAN

Synonyms: Network for Advanced Nuclear Magnetic Resonance

Resource Type: data or information resource, portal, organization portal, service resource

Keywords: Multi-institution collaboration, NMR, spectroscopy, NMR spectroscopy, NMR applications research infrastructure,

Funding: NSF

Availability: Free, Freely available,

Resource Name: NSF Network for Advanced NMR

Resource ID: SCR_025092

Record Creation Time: 20240309T053218+0000

Record Last Update: 20260808T190710+0000
