Description: The Alzheimer Society of Ireland is the leading dementia specific service provider in Ireland. The Society is a company limited by guarantee and a registered charity - CHY 7868. The Society was founded in 1982 by a small group of people who were caring for a family member with Alzheimer's Disease or a related dementia. Today, it is a national voluntary organization with an extensive national network of branches, regional offices and services that aims to provide people with all forms of dementia, their families and carers with the necessary support to maximize their quality of life. As the major dementia-specific service provider in Ireland, The Society's network includes over 100 dementia specific services such as day care centers, home care services, carer support groups, social clubs, a national respite center and an advocacy service. The Society also operates the Alzheimer National Helpline Service offering information and support to anyone affected by Alzheimer's disease / dementia at 1800 341 341. For a full list of services in your area please see the We Can Help section. The Society comprises over 2,500 members, 300 volunteers and over 700 full and part-time staff. The Society has 6 regional offices and a network of Branches around the country. A number of core functions are operated through our national office including information, policy and research, fundraising, public relations, training and finance.
