Description: THIS RESOURCE IS NO LONGER IN SERVICE, documented on February 8, 2017. Service that aggregates altmetrics: diverse impacts from articles, datasets, blog posts, and more, to create a measure of the impact of scholarly output. * view metrics: Point to research products in Slideshare, GitHub, and Dryad. Import items from Google Scholar profiles or a BibTex file and the output is a metrics report that can be viewed and shared. * embed anywhere: Use the full-featured API to add metrics to projects. Or drop the embeddable Javascript widget into a publishing platform's HTML. * Free - metrics data (and source code). They believe open altmetrics are key for building the coming era of Web-native science.
