Proper Citation: Institute for Scientific and Technical Information (RRID:SCR_011303)

Description: For over a decade, the Institute for Scientific and Technical Information (INstitut de l'Information Scientifique et Technique - Inist) of the French National Center for Scientific Research (Cnrs) has been designing and developing services to facilitate access to and valorization of scientific information produced by international basic and applied research communities. The INIST has skilled expertise in the field of biocuration of digital resources and bibliographic databases. With the advent of the Internet, while continuing with its traditional document delivery and bibliographic activities, INIST's role has evolved towards providing public sector researchers with the direct and permanent access to the scientific information they need. Nowadays, INIST is actively involved in activities concerning electronic resources negotiations and electronic resource sharing, electronic publishing, electronic archiving, science monitoring, and information analysis and processing.
