Proper Citation: LSM Image Examiner (RRID:SCR_014344)

Description: Software used to compile images obtained from the Zeiss LSM 510 confocal microscope. The browser can be used for general image archiving and handling and interactive measurement in labs and workgroups. Features include orthogonal sectioning, 3D cut function, 3D view with calculation of single projections, and interactive measurement functions in the overlay dialog, such as scale bar, distance, and area.

Synonyms: LSM Image Browser

Resource Type: data management software, software application, software resource

Keywords: data management software, image archive, image management, interactive measurement

Availability: Available for download
