Proper Citation: Morpheus (RRID:SCR_014975)

Description: Modeling and simulation environment for study of multi scale and multicellular systems. Users can construct and simulate models of gene regulation, signaling pathways, tissue patterning and morphogenesis and explore the effects of multiscale feedbacks between these processes. Morpheus can render 2D and 3D models using graphical user interface.

Resource Type: 3d visualization software, data processing software, data visualization software, simulation software, software application, software resource

Defining Citation: PMID:24443380

Keywords: simulation, modeling, multicellular, systems biology, cell-based models, data visualization, differential equations, reaction-diffusion systems, bio.tools

Funding: BMBF 0315734;
BMBF 0316169;
DFG

Availability: Free, Available for download, Freely available
