Proper Citation: ZebraTrack project (RRID:SCR_021429)

Description: Project related to distraction free behavioral acquisition. Provides imaging setup for distraction free behavioral acquisition with automated tracking using open source ImageJ software and workflow for extraction of behavioral endpoints of zebrafish. Used for online tracking of larval zebrafish at high framerates.Provides user interface to run experiments as well as flexible design to allow definition of arbitrary open- and closed-loop experiments.

Synonyms: ZebraTrack

Resource Type: data or information resource, portal, project portal
