Proper Citation: UTSA Kleberg Advanced Microscopy Laboratory (RRID:SCR_010146)

Description: This laboratory houses an impressive collection of high-end microscopes including one of the most powerful transmission electron microscopes in the world. The microscope is kept in a specially designed space that inhibits intrusive vibrations. Its atomic resolution is propelling world-class research in nanotechnology, biology, chemistry, geology, engineering and medicine. The laboratory's microscopes are accessible to trained collaborators from other institutions.

Resource Type: service resource, core facility, access service resource
